 FROM: Applicant: David A. Silva
 Application No. 10/082,497

August 13, 2004

The following amendment (page 2) was faxed on 4/29/2004. The examiner didn't receive it and requested it be resent along with a copy of the "Auto-Reply Facsimile Transmission. There should be no late fee charged because it was originally sent on time and apparently lost.

TO: Examiner: Stephanie L. Willatt
FROM: Applicant: David A. Silva
Application No. 10/082,497

AMENDMENT

Please amend the following captioned patent application:

IN THE CLAIMS:

1. (Canceled)

2. (Canceled)

3. (Canceled)

4. (Amended) A hair fastener for use in styling hair of a human being comprising:
a zigzag member having a series of substantially sharp angles spread out in alternate directions; each of the substantially sharp angles are spread out enough to hold a section of hair there between without creating a lot of tension to the hair; and, a bobby pin integrally formed at each end of said zigzag member; each said bobby pin holds the zigzag member in the hair by squeezing and grasping a section of hair; whereby, said hair fastener is adapted to be placed into a section of hair to secure.

6. (Amended) The hair fastener of claim 4 wherein a [decretive] decorative member is attached by attaching means to at least one [bend] of the substantially sharp angles of the zigzag member.

Respectfully submitted,

By,

David A. Silva
